ESTABLISHMENT, No. 37.

With the view of effecting the further reduction contemplated by G. O., No. 1,194, 28th April 1871, the Government direct that the situation of Manager in the Office of Consulting Engineer for the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, vacant by the death of M. Gopaul Pillay, shall not be filled up, and that the remainder of the Office Establishment which it is necessary to continue shall be removed to the Government Office. In the present circumstances of the Irrigation Company it is unnecessary to maintain more than one Draughtsman who will be required in connection with plans and schedules of land to be transferred to the Company for distribution works, and the Head Draughtsman may accordingly be dispensed with, also two of the five peons, and the moochee.

2. The remaining establishment to be continued for the present will be :—

One Accountant with the Examiner of Accounts.
One Accountant.
One Clerk.
One Record-keeper.
One Draughtsman.
Three Peons, one of whom is attached to the Examiner of Accounts.
