No. 488. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Chief Engineer for Irrigation, dated Madras, 17th July 1871, No. 48 :—

From the Agent and Manager of the Madras Irrigation, and Canal Company, to the Acting Chief Engineer for Irrigation, dated Madras, 6th July 1871, No. 294.

I HAVE the honour to inform you that an offer has been made to me to purchase the Company's self-acting lathe, provided the price is a reasonable one.

2. The book-value of the lathe is Rupees 1,650-14-3, and the store charges would add about one-third to that amount, say, Rupees 560.

3. The lathe is in good condition, but is the manufacture of Smith, Beacock, and Towner, makers of no celebrity.

4. Will you have the goodness to inform me if I am at liberty to dispose of the lathe, and, if so, at what price.

From the same Officer, dated Madras, 14th July 1871, No. 306.

IN reply to your letter No. 79, of the 10th instant, (received to-day,) I have the honour to inform you that the self-acting lathe referred to in my letter No. 294, of the 6th instant, forms an item in the Madras stock.

2. The lathe is now at the works of Mr. deClosets, to whom I lent it to enable him to do some work for the Company, and it was through Mr. deClosets, that the offer to purchase the lathe came.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The order of Government marginally noted gives the Consulting Engineer discretionary power to arrange for the sale of stores from time to time, but that order hardly applies to the case of plant of a valuable description.

No. 1,438 of 4th May 1866.

	RS.	A.	P.
The book-value of the lathe is	1,650	14	3
The store charge	560	0	0
Making the total nominal value	2,210	14	3

3. I should suggest that the Agent should have authority to dispose of the machine to the best advantage at any reduction on the nominal value not exceeding 25 per cent.

No. 489. ORDER THEREON, 28th July 1871, No. 1,984.

IRRIGATION, No. 28.

THE Government authorize the sale of the self-acting lathe and of any similar plant belonging to the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company at a reduction of 25 per cent. on their cost price, i. e., not including store charges.
