My dear Sir,

I send you a M.S. copy of the Original Prospectus of the Company having unfortunately failed to discover the existence of any Printed Copy except the one I have had for my own use bound up with other Reports in Book form. I send you the latter also in order that you may have the M.S. copy compared in your own Office and if you consider it essential that the Printed Copy should be sent to the Governor General the Book is at your service - if you will only be kind enough to take measures for its being returned to me. As soon as convenient.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
H. Bartell Hunter
