MADRAS

SIR,

In reply to your Memo No 221 of the 25th Ultimo, enquiring on what particular duties Mr. Sherard is now employed, and to what situation it is proposed to appoint him, I have the honor to report for the information of Government that Mr. Sherard Keeps an Index of all correspondence connected with Delta Projects, besides assisting the Draughtsmen in Abstracting Estimates, and calculating them. I have found him most useful as an Indexer, and it is my intention to nominate him to a permanent post

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith (Copy of Letter from Executive Engineer Vizagapatam Circle No 2757 dated 31st October 1871)

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

Executive Engineer

To

The Secretary to Government
Public Works Department
Fort St George

Letters from the Superintending Engineer of the 1st Division dated 11th September and 4th October 1871, Nos. 1845 & 2099.

For Orders.

In the foregoing letters the Acting Superintending Engineer of the 1st Division recommends that a Mr. Sherard who has been employed for upwards of a year on the temporary establishment may be exempted from the Uncovenanted Service Examination.

It appears that Mr. Sherard has passed the Standard Examination for Signallers in the Telegraph Department, but that owing to certain orders issued which contemplate preference

I think the circumstances under the circumstances he may be exempted.

A. S.

being given to orphans in the various Asylums in filling up vacancies, he has been unable to secure admission into that Department.

Major Fischer bears testimony to Mr. Sherard's usefulness as an Undertaker, the duties of which appointment he is now engaged in performing.
