I HAVE the honour to report that Serjeant Charles Ward, Overseer of the Voilpaud Taluq in the Madanapully Range, Cuddapah District, has submitted his resignation of his appointment in this department; I therefore request that the necessary steps be taken to have him returned to Military duty.

2. It was my intention to have reported Serjeant Ward with a view to his being remanded, as he has been very careless and neglectful with his works in the Voilpaud Taluq.

3. Mr. O'Ratigan, C. E., Executive Engineer in charge of the Range, reports very unfavourably of Serjeant Ward. I have personally on my inspection of the taluq and on various other occasions reprimanded Serjeant Ward, and seeing that it was useless for him to continue longer in this department, I gave him the opportunity of sending in his resignation in preference to being remanded to his corps.
