Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 14th May 1872.

No. 444. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 8th May 1872, No. 227 :—

From the Acting Deputy Traffic Manager, to the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 8th April 1872, No. C. 0-154.

I BEG to subjoin, for your information, extract from Guard Evans' Journal of the 9-30 A. M. train (mixed) from Cuddapah to Bellary of the 6th instant :—

"A 2nd class passenger, named J. Bresnahan, who got in the train at Tadputri, died between Veerapoor and Bellary."

2. I have written for further particulars of this matter, and I shall communicate the result to you when received.

To the Consulting Engineer for Railways, for information.

8th April 1872.

(Signed) R. B. ELWIN,
Agent and Manager.

From the Acting Deputy Traffic Manager, to the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 12th April 1872, No. C. 14,332-161.

With reference to my letter No. C. 0-154, dated 8th instant, I beg to inform you that Mr. Bresnahan (a European) was about fifty years of age; his death was not reported to the Police authorities, as the Rev. Mr. Doyle, Roman Catholic Chaplain, who was in train on the date in question, took charge of his body, and the nature of his illness was fever, dropsy, and dysentery.

To the Consulting Engineer for Railways, for information.

15th April 1872.

(Signed) R. B. ELWIN,
Agent and Manager.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.
