Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
29th May 1872.

No. 473. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Buildings and Roads—Civil Buildings,) to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 15th May 1872, No. 264 B. C :—

In reply to your letter No. 895 of 4th ultimo, I am directed to convey the approval of the Governor-General in Council to the revised plans forwarded therewith for the new Telegraph Office at Madras, and to state that the Government of India considers that two additional verandahs might be given with advantage on the outer sides of the wings of the building, if that can be done without unduly raising the cost of the building.

2. The plans received with your letter (three in number) are herewith returned.

No. 474. Order thereon, 29th May 1872, No. 1,345.

TELEGRAPH, No. 3.

Communicated to the Consulting Architect who will provide for the verandahs suggested by the Government of India in the designs herewith returned if they can be added without materially increasing the cost of the building. He will at the same time submit the necessary detailed drawings with estimates of quantities.
