No. 101. Read the following letter from the Officiating Superintending Engineer, 7th Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Coimbatore, 23rd May 1872, No. 34 :—

WITH reference to G. O., No. 413, of 12th February 1872, I have the honour to forward, herewith, a letter* with two statements from the Neilgherry Range Officer, affording information with regard to orphans connected with the Warrant or Non-commissioned Officers of the Public Works Department. There are no orphans in other ranges of the 7th Division.

* No. 50, dated 15th March 1872.

From the Executive Engineer, Ootacamund, to the Superintending Engineer, 7th Division, Coimbatore, dated Ootacamund, 15th March 1872, No. 50.

WITH reference to your endorsement on G. O., No. 213, dated 12th February 1872, I have the honour to furnish the following information.

2. There are no orphans in any way connected with Warrant and Non-commissioned Officers of the Public Works Department at this station. Overseer Serjeant Willis, whose wife is dead, has one boy.

3. There are a good number of quarters to spare at Wellington which could be easily converted into residences for children.

4. The agency for education consists of the depôt Schools, capable of affording instruction to about 120 children and presided over by a School Master and Mistress; the former is a 2nd class Army School Master, who draws salary from the Military Department; the latter is only acting, but a permanent School Mistress is sanctioned for the Depôt. The portion presided over by the School Master is mixed (boys and girls) and for children able to read; that by the School Mistress for children undergoing a primary education and called an Infant School.

5. There is no local school for Europeans at Wellington. Sub-Conductor Power's children attend the Depôt Schools at Wellington.

6. Overseer Mr. Willis' boy lives with the European Jailer of the Native Prison.

7. Two returns duly filled in are attached.
