by the defalcation of Mr. Gay, late a Station Master on the Madras Railway, and with reference thereto to inquire whether there is no chance of recovering the just dues of the Company from that officer. If this cannot be done the system of accounting for traffic money on the Madras Railway must be defective somewhere, and I am to request that the Consulting Engineer may be requested to see that such a system is introduced into the Traffic Audit Office of the line as shall ensure the bringing under the review of the Traffic Manager and Chief Accountant of all bad debts, with the view of preventing their accumulation in future.

- No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 1st July 1872, No. 1,579.

RAILWAY, No. 1.

COMMUNICATED to the Consulting Engineer who will inquire into the course adopted by the Audit Department of the Madras Railway for bringing to the notice of the Traffic Manager the existence of outstanding amounts in Station Accounts, and report what modification in the system is necessary to ensure on all occasions a prompt recovery of traffic collections.
