From the Government of India, Public Works Department, to the Consulting Engineer to the Government of India for Guaranteed Railways, Lahore, dated 17th July 1872, No. 1,103 G. R.

In acknowledging the receipt of your memorandum No. 1,847-G. dated the 18th June 1872, and in continuation of Public Works Department No. 660-G. R. dated the 9th May 1872, I am directed to intimate that after careful consideration of the subject the Government of India have come to the decision that the following rules should govern the questions of the grant of overtime allowances and special gratuities to the employes of the Engineering Department of Guaranteed Railways:—

1. Labourers may receive payment in proportion to the time they are employed, unless paid by the task.
 2. No Superintendents, Foremen, Inspectors, European plate-layers, or similar persons on a fixed salary should receive overtime allowances.
 3. In exceptional cases where extraordinary services are performed by such persons on special occasions, it should rest with the Chief Engineer to propose the grant of a bonus if he thinks fit. This bonus after approval by the Directors or by the Agent on their behalf, if duly authorized by the Directors to do so, should be sanctioned at an official meeting before disbursement, and such cases may be disposed of by Consulting Engineers.
2. The Agents should be requested to obtain instructions from their Directors as to the powers of approval of gratuities which they may exercise without reference to England.
