Sir,

When I took up my appointment at Bangalore, I supposed that I was entitled to a Carriage Allowance of 50 Rupees a month. I have now seen a letter from Assistant Secretary to Government of India Public Works Department dated 9th July 1869 which stops the allowance (!)

I beg to point out that this ruling bears hardly on the Executive Engineers in charge of works at large stations. In as much as it is simply impossible that their duties can be carried on without a carriage and hence the effect of the order in question is to reduce their salaries by 50 Rupees a month. At this Station it would be
