Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 16th October 1872.

No. 271. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 27th September 1872, No. 516:—

From the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 17th September 1872, No. 674.

In continuation of my letter of the 20th ultimo, No. 601, I have the honour to report, for the information of Government, that having discussed with the Traffic Manager the expediency of adopting the rule prevailing in England of charging half fares only for all children above three and under twelve years of age, it has been determined to give effect to the suggestion of the Directors on and from the 1st of October.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.

2. In the new Code of Rules and Regulations for the transport of Troops by Railway, one of the clauses is that half fares should be charged for soldiers' children under twelve years of age, and, on the suggestion of the Board of Directors, the Agent has made the rule applicable to the general public.
