Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 8th November 1872.

No. 115. Read the following letter from the Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Railway), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, (Railway), dated Simla, 22nd October 1872, No. 1,693 G. R.

It has been represented to the Government of India that the issue of third-class return tickets either on native holidays or as a regular practice would tend to develop the passenger traffic to the benefit of both the public and the Railway Companies, I am directed to request that the Government of India may be informed what is the present practice in this respect on the Railways in the Madras Presidency, and whether the Government of Madras are of opinion that a third-class return service is likely to be attended with financial success.
