Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
26th November 1872.

No. 435. Read the following docket from the Government of India, No. 1,464 B-M:—

Proceedings of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council in the Public Works Department, dated Simla, 5th November 1872.

Memorandum from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, dated Fort William, 22nd October 1872, No. 737.

WITH reference to the communications* from the Public Works Department, relative to a project for a magazine and fortified post and place of refuge at Bangalore, the undersigned is directed to state that there is, it is understood, every probability of a speedy decision being arrived at on the question of the general reduction of magazines in the three Presidencies, and that until the question as to the magazines and arsenals that should be retained under the altered circumstances of India, which is now before the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, has been decided, the project for a magazine and fortified post at Bangalore (costing six lacs of rupees) should be held in abeyance.

* No. 220 B-M, dated 23rd February 1870.
No. 1,545 B-M, 12th December 1871.

2. In the meantime the existing magazine buildings in the fort at Bangalore should be placed in such a state of repair as may be necessary, but all other works in connection with the proposed defences may stand over till funds can be spared from more urgent works.

3. The enclosures† of Public Works Department memorandum No. 220B-M, dated 23rd February 1870, are herewith returned.
