No 3339

Superintending Engineer Office
4th Division
Madras 2nd November 1874

From
Colonel G. F. Walker R.E.
Secretary to Government &c.

To
Sir,
I have the honour to request the permission of Government to rent a house in Chengleput at a monthly payment of Rupees 15 for the Range Office.

2. There is no public building in the station available and Mr Lowry has up to this time been allowed to occupy an outhouse attached to the building (a private one) occupied by the Sub Collector for his office, the outhouse is quite unfit for an office, and will not accommodate the establishment as increased in Government Order No 1390 of 5th June 1872.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedt Servant
