No. 188. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 22nd November 1872, No. 646:—

From the Agent and Manager of the Carnatic Railway Company, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 17th October 1872, No. 600.

With reference to your letter No. 241, dated 13th September 1872, I have the honour to submit herewith a list of the proposed establishment of this Company for the half-year ending June 1873, as considered and settled at this office yesterday, when yourself, the Acting Deputy Consulting Engineer, and the Examiner of Accounts met myself and the Chief Engineer.

2. In the lists which are made out to show the establishment sanctioned and entertained for this half-year, there are included in the former the establishment as submitted in this office docket No. 529, dated 21st August 1872, and in the proposed establishment for the next half-year I have also included two additional peons and a menial servant, which were not mentioned at the Meeting referred to, but whose services are applied for, and will be required for the office of Chief Accountant, whose arrival from England is shortly looked for.

3. In view of sanction being accorded to the commencement of the preliminary works, for which an estimate was submitted in this office docket No. 587, dated the 7th instant, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to move the Government to grant their sanction to the establishment now proposed at their earliest convenience, in order that arrangements may be made for its early organization, and especially that the additional Engineer or Engineers who may be required to be sent out from England may be applied for at once.
