Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 11th January 1872.

No. 148. Read the following Endorsement of the Secretary to the Government of India, No. 960 A—G:—

Despatch from the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Account—General,) to His Grace the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, dated Fort William, 19th December 1871, No. 160.

We have the honour to forward herewith, in duplicate, a special and emergent indent for three boilers, without mountings, urgently required by the Government of Madras for three of the steamers* working on the Godavery River, and to request that they may be forwarded to that Presidency as early as possible.

* Little Nell, Pioneer, and Thistle.
2. The cost of the boilers is chargeable against the "Ordinary Public Works grant," and under present arrangements should be treated as a final charge in the Home accounts.

COPY forwarded to the Government of Madras, with reference to letter No. 305, dated 19th October last, with the remark that the cost of the boilers, which is estimated at Rupees 2,400 only, will have to be met from the grant of that year in which they may be paid for by the Secretary of State.
