The military Prison at Trincom-= being affairs but have accommodated = for local Prisoners - If it be decided to enlarge the Prison by prison so as to meet the demands of all our Southern Stations the work will be a large one probably almost equal in cost to a new Building elsewhere.
The expense and inconvenience arising from the despatch of Prisoners under escort from Madras, Trincom-= Bangalore would be very great. I would strongly recommend the construction at Bangalore of a military Prison Cal-culated to accommodate from 65 to 70 prisoners - The necessity for this is shown in Ady's memo letter of the 17th October 1887. No 541 and supported by a

a further communication from that Office dated 21st Sept 1871. No 177. in which my views are expressed. I regret the necessity I am under in this case of supporting a proposal which must necessarily considerably delay - I anticipate that a certain amount of accommodation will always be available in the Botanical Gardens as well as in the Lunatic Asylum.
Otherwise my demand for accommodation ~~should~~ ^{might} be larger - We may probably be able to adopt a cheaper arrangement than that which has been carried out at ^{St. Mary's} ~~St. Mary's~~ ^{St. Mary's}

Yours
A. J.

Let a plan & estimate be prepared & then we shall be able to answer the
