THE Military Secretary to Government has the honour to request, with reference to the annexed extract from a letter from Captain C. B. S. 5. * * * I would have still been able to keep my promises were it not for the very irregular manner my pay was paid to me by the Department Public Works during the year 1869-70. On one occasion I was kept out of all pay for upwards of four months, in fact for upwards of eighteen months (as far as I can remember) I never received my pay regularly, being often kept for long periods in arrears. * * *
