Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 16th April 1873.

No. 224. Read the following letter from the Consulting Architect to Government, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 24th March 1873, No. 290 :—

I HAVE the honour to submit detailed quantities and a blank estimate for constructing the new works in connection with the Combaconum College. See G. O. No. 4,472, dated 21st October 1872. The amount is within the sum stated approximately in my letter No. 111, dated 23rd February 1871, namely, Rupees 50,000.

2. I would suggest that the local officers be called upon to fill in the rates according to their own calculations, and I would beg that a copy of their schedule be furnished to me for information.

No. 225. ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1873, No. 1,100.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 14.

THE specification and estimate of quantities submitted with this letter will be forwarded to the District Engineer, Tanjore, with a view to the rates being entered in the latter and the papers re-submitted to Government for final orders through the Inspecting Engineer.
