Enclosures. 3. of Government, with a recommendation that the expenditure in England, of the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, be brought into the Indian books of the Company, in conformity with the practice as regards Railway Accounts.

2. The Examiner considers that the verification of the Accounts of the expenditure of the Company in England is necessary, but, as the total receipts of the Company, as shown in their Home Account Current, can be checked by means of the returns received from the Secretary of State, it is thought that if, in this respect, the Accounts signed by the Secretary of the Company be found to be correct, the details, so

Negation { K. R. No 11 71 May 1731

The proposal to bring the expenditure in England of the M. & C. Co., from the commencement, upon the Indian Accounts of the Company, is approved. It is observed that the materials for these accounts are available.

2 After the Accounts of Home expenditure have been completely examined and classified, the Examiner of Accounts can submit, a further report should there appear to be any doubt as to the correctness of any of the details, but it does not appear to be necessary in the absence of any evidence as to inaccuracy, to provide for their verification further than can be done by checking the entries of receipts &c. as noticed by the Chief Engineer for Irrigation.
