Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 2nd June 1873.

No. 21. Read the following letter from Captain C. HIGHMOOR, for Acting Inspector-General of Police, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R. E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 9th May 1873, No. 1,479:—

I HAVE the honour to submit, for the sanction of Government, plans and estimates, amounting in the aggregate

	RS.	A.	P.
1 Station-house at Bheemadole (re-construction) ...	70	4	0	to Rupees 384-4-0, for executing by
1 Head and 3 Constables' huts at Jelugamilly (re-construction) ...	180	0	0	departmental arrangement the works
1 Station-house at Koyalagudem ...	134	0	0	marginally noted in the Godavery
Total ...	384	4	0	District.

2. The works in question have not been included in the list of works approved in G. O. No. 2,340, dated 7th October 1872, Public Works Department; but the Superintendent of Police reports that the re-construction of the station-house at Bheemadole and the huts at Jelugamilly have become necessary owing to the circumstances mentioned in the subjoined extracts, and that a station-house at Koyalagudem is most emergently required:—

“Bheemadole station-house and huts suffered very much in the rains of last year.”

“With reference to the Jelugamilly huts, I have the honour to inform you that this is an exceedingly unhealthy place. On a recent visit I found the Constables' huts (four in number) in a very dilapidated condition and requiring much and immediate repair. Not only are the huts of the very poorest description, but the site* is so low and bad that they are rendered additionally unhealthy thereby. I chose another good site on high dry ground and propose new huts being constructed.”

* On which they are built.

“In one hut on the present site I ascertained that one Constable, his wife, mother-in-law, and a child had died from fever in about fifteen days. Two other members left dangerously ill. I propose huts having a basement of 4 feet from the ground.”

3. Funds for the works will be provided from the current year's Budget allotment, Item No. 21, of the district, under head “Construction.”

No 22. ORDER THEREON, 2nd June 1873, No. 1,469.
