Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 6th June 1873.

No. 94A. Read the following letter from J. H. PRINCE, Esq., Agent for V. Raghava Charry, Contractor, Strivigoontum Anicut Project, to the Honourable W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated No. 18, Second Line Beach, Madras, 23th April 1873 :—

I BEG to represent, for the information of Government, that V. Raghava Charry, Contractor, being now free to settle the long disputed matters regarding the Strivigoontum Anicut Project, I have now the honour to request that Government will be pleased to issue the necessary orders to Mr. J. W. Randall, the present District Engineer of Tinnevely, to go through the accounts with Raghava Charry, who, being free, will be able to explain to Mr. Randall in person the differences in accounts made by Lieutenant Shepherd, R. E., and that, on these differences being pointed out, Mr. Randall will personally inspect same with the accounts, and give Raghava Charry an opportunity of establishing his rights with the view of a settlement being had accordingly.

2. Raghava Charry, I may add, will be prepared, after he has been allowed a personal explanation, to abide by any order Mr. Randall may pass thereon, the same being fair and equitable, or in the event of Mr. Randall reporting thereon for the orders of Government, then, and in such case, such orders as the Government may be pleased to pass on such report.

3. Government should further pass orders to Mr. Randall to give Raghava Charry access or copies of any record he may desire for the purpose of giving him opportunity to offer a full and complete explanation, and that a copy of Mr. Randall's report to Government should also be forwarded to Raghava Charry for his information.

4. I have also to request a copy of the last Proceedings of Government passed herein last month.

No. 94B.

ORDER THEREON, 6th June 1873, No. 1,508A.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 12.

Mr. PRINCE will be informed that the Government have instructed the District Engineer, Tinnevely, as to the course he is to pursue with reference to the settlement of the claims of Raghava Charry, late Contractor of the Strivigoontum Anicut Works, and the latter should accordingly communicate with Mr. Randall, if he has not already done so.

2. The Government cannot comply with the request contained in the last paragraph of Mr. Prince's letter.
