RESOLUTION by the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 15th May 1873, No. 338.

READ :—

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 55, dated 20th February 1873, and enclosures relative to the grant of an extension of the furlough of Mr. R. E. Forrest, an Executive Engineer, 1st grade, North-Western Provinces, an extension which has been granted with the understanding that, if Mr. Forrest be hereafter admitted to the benefits of the new Leave Rules for the Uncovenanted Service, he will be allowed to draw the allowances admissible under those Rules, but that, if not placed under those Rules he will not be entitled to any pay for the period in question.

RESOLUTION.—It has been decided by the Government of India, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, that the new Leave Rules for Uncovenanted Servants do not affect allowances on leave taken before the rules were passed, or on an extension of such leave. Mr. Forrest is not, therefore, entitled to any allowance during the extension granted to him in England, and the Governor General in Council desires that he may be so informed.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution, together with the papers read above, be forwarded to the Public Works Department, with the request that this decision may be communicated to Mr. Forrest.
