2. The Traffic Manager, in applying for the accommodation, writes as follows to the Chief Engineer:—

“The additional shed accommodation at Vellore, provided for in the Budget, is now absolutely required, and I shall feel obliged if you will obtain sanction for its construction.

“The goods’ shed is of itself unequal to the traffic of the station, and I cannot help feeling that traffic is discouraged for the want of additional accommodation.

“An open shed on the loading platform will probably meet our wants for some time to come.”

3. In a subsequent letter, Mr. Church wrote to the Chief Engineer: “I beg to return the plans sent with your letter, and to state that 100 feet of the adjacent platform requires to be covered.”

4. I have discussed the matter with the Railway Authorities, and beg to recommend that sanction for the proposed additional accommodation may be accorded.

5. It is proposed to meet the expenditure from Schedule B., Budget 1873-74.

6. The sanction will lapse at the end of the eighth quarter after the receipt of sanction.
