the expenditure on the Tambrapoorney River embankments and on the bridge over the Streoviguntum Anicut to "Deposits," under which a credit has been raised of Rupees 25,938, this sum being the balance remaining of the ryots' contribution of Rupees 38,845 after meeting the outlay (Rupees 12,907) during 1872-73 on the improvements (repairs) of the Tambrapoorney River embankments. The District Engineer is very anxious that the debits to the Streoviguntum Anicut should be confined to the items contained in the anicut estimate, an arrangement which will be effected by following the course above mentioned.
