THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 14.

SIR,—I am directed to bring to notice that under the provisions of Rule 4, Section 14, Chapter V., of the Acting Allowance Code, His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctioned the grant of a deputation allowance of Rupees 50 per mensem to an Overseer who held temporary charge of a range; but that the Controller of Public Works Accounts has objected that the restriction imposed by paragraph 14 of the Government of India Standing Orders, No. 43 of 1871, applies to the case. I am to request therefore the confirmation of that Government to a general rule that Overseers when appointed to the charge of ranges shall draw the prescribed deputation allowance, on the ground that in this Presidency such charges are held by a higher class of Upper Subordinates, and by Assistant Engineers, and by Executive Engineers of the 4th grade, indifferently.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Colonel, R.E.,
