Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 5th December 1873.

No. 93. Read the following letter from Major C. H. LUARD, R.E., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Guaranteed Railways,) to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, (Railway,) dated Simla, 17th November 1873, No. 1,986 G.R.:—

I AM directed to invite your attention to Rule 3, Section XV. of the General Rules and Regulations of the Guaranteed Railways, on the subject of gates and gate-keepers at road crossings, and to request that the Government of India may be favoured with an expression of opinion on its practical working, and also to be informed whether any change in the rule is considered necessary or desirable. It should be added that the question which has led to this request is between the advisability of keeping gates open to the roads as a rule, or open to the railroad and shut to the roads as a rule.
