To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.

RAILWAY, No. 12.

SIR,—I am directed to invite the attention of the Bombay Government to the serious embarrassment which is likely to ensue from the practice at present obtaining of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway being permitted to make alterations in their time-table affecting the through service with Madras without first communicating with this Government, a preliminary measure which I am to express a hope will commend itself to His Excellency the Governor in Council of Bombay. Under the present system the time-table of this Presidency may at any time be entirely deranged without consideration of the interests of the public or the railway.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Colonel, R.E.,
Secretary to Government.

Exd. S. T. Austin.
