Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 3rd March 1873.

No. 57. Read the following letter from the Officiating District Engineer, South Arcot, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Cuddalore, 12th December 1872, No. 2:—

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, No. 2,889 of the 7th December 1872, I have the honour to report that the Allangal channel is not in any way connected with the Pooniar anicut.

2. As will be observed by the sketch accompanying this, the head of the Allangal channel is situated in the north bank of the river, about twelve miles below the anicut.

No. 58. ORDER THEREON, 3rd March 1873, No. 682.

IRRIGATION, No. 3.

As it appears that paragraph 2 of G. O., 7th December 1872, was written under a misapprehension as to the situation of the head of the Allangal channel, and as it is clear from G. O. of the 9th April 1870, sanctioning the estimate for its improvement, that its circumstances are not such as to make it desirable that it should be grouped with the Pooniar Anicut irrigation, the Government direct that the Allangal channel shall be, as heretofore, considered as a distinct and separate work.

IRRIGATION, No. 4.

From Secretary to Government of India,
No. 722 A. G., dated 13th August 1872.
To do., No. 2,220, 18th Sept. 1872.
From do., " 958 A. G., 2nd Nov. "
To do., " 2,890, 7th Dec. "

SIR,—I am directed, in connection with the correspondence as per margin, to state that it having been brought to the notice of this Government that the Allangal channel is unconnected with the Pooniar anicut, though obtaining its supply from the Pooniar, and it being evident from the information contained in Proceedings, Madras Government, No. 998 of the 9th April 1870, that this channel could not conveniently be grouped with the Pooniar Anicut irrigation, the outlay upon the channel should be recorded in the Irrigation Accounts under the head "Ordinary Agricultural expenditure for which no Capital and Revenue Account is kept."

2. I am further to remark that when the question as to whether the outlay to Capital or Revenue was first asked in your letter No. 722 A. G., it appeared that, as the expenditure was for extensive improvements from which a considerable return was anticipated, the cost was properly debitable to Capital and not to Revenue. It was not clearly understood then that capital outlay was not to be so recorded, except for works for which regular Capital and Revenue Accounts were kept.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Captain, R.E.,

Officiating Under Secretary to Government.
