RESOLUTION.—The following rules for dealing with the second-hand and unserviceable stores of Guaranteed Railways should in future be acted upon in supersession of the orders at present in force:—

RULES.

Rule I.—Stores and materials, purchased or issued from store for any purpose when no longer required, should be returned into stock at a fair valuation, and the work, or district from which they have been returned, should be credited with the same. This valuation should be agreed upon between the head of the department concerned and the Chief Storekeeper; and in the case of dispute, should be decided at the next official meeting between the Railway Company's Agent and the Consulting Engineer to Government.

Rule II.—Stores and materials when returned in an unserviceable state, or when not likely to be required again, should be sold with as little delay as possible, and the Consulting Engineer and the Government Examiner should satisfy themselves periodically that no needless accumulation of useless materials is allowed to occur.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to the Local Governments of Madras and Bombay, The Consulting Engineers, Calcutta, Lahore, and Lucknow, The Accountant-General, Public Works Department, and Governments and Officers marginally noted for information and guidance.
