No. 158.

INDIA OFFICE,
London, March 26, 1874.

MY LORD,—I have considered in Council your Financial letter, dated the 30th January last, No. 31, stating that, subject to confirmation, you have sanctioned the appointment of a Deputy Controller of Public Works Accounts, in the Irrigation Branch, Madras, on a salary of Rupees 550 per mensem.

2. You state that the necessity for this appointment has been caused by the introduction into Madras of the new system of making up Capital Accounts of Irrigation Works, and you are of opinion that, in order to ensure success in preparing these accounts, a Deputy Controller must be placed in charge of them.

3. As it is of very great importance that accurate accounts should be kept of Irrigation Works undertaken by you, I confirm your proceedings.

I have, &c.,
