No. 139
 Mr. Range of the Gangan District

List of Disallowances from the Travelling Allowance Bill for the Month of April 1874.

Name and Designation.	Amount disallowed.	Particulars of Charge disallowed.	Explanation by Range Officer.	Superintending Engineer's Remarks.	How disposed of.
J. Leggatt Esq. Engineer		Excessive travelling allowance for the 10th April 1874. Disallowed travelling allowance not having been received prior to the 10th and being the head quarters of the Range.	Commenced to take charge on the 10th (arriving at Fort St. George) and actually reached his head quarters the following day. He is therefore entitled to travelling allowance for that day. A supplemental bill is attached.	As Mr Leggatt commenced taking over charge on the 10th and actually reached his head quarters the following day, he is entitled to travelling allowance for that day. / Sd/ J. Leggatt 17 June 1874.	The allowance is paid provisionally in deference to the opinion of the District Engineer but the fact of an inspection commencing before a newly appointed officer reaches his head quarters is so unusual that the question will be referred to Government. It is true that Mr Leggatt reached his head quarters on the day for which travelling allowance is claimed, but the journey was necessary to join the appointment and therefore the question whether the Government should pay travelling allowance for that journey. / Signed J. T. Moff. 15 June 1874. Offg. Controller Mr. Mason The District Engineer Gangan. No 2229 Copy forwarded to the Secretary of Government Mr Department for information and order. / Signed J. T.
