No. 142. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 17th June 1874, No. 2,317:—

WITH reference to the latter part of G. O., No. 977, dated 15th April 1874, Public Works Department, and paragraph 2 of G. O. of 1st ultimo, No. 1,152, Public Works Department, I have the honour to report that the reconstruction of four Police Huts at Ogily, Nellore District, has been recommended in consequence of scarcity of accommodation for the men on the spot, the old huts having become uninhabitable owing to unsafe condition of the roofs.

2. The Superintendent of Police reports that the original huts referred to were too cheaply, and probably also in a faulty manner, constructed by departmental arrangement in 1867-68 and 1868-69 at a total cost of Rupees 349,* which is reported to be too little for the description of accommodation required, and that the old materials have been disposed of for Rupees 38-10-0 only.
