No. 346. ORDER THEREON, 14th October 1874, No. 2,937.

MILITARY WORKS, No. 6.

THE proximate estimate of Rupees 1,000 (amounting on further inquiry to Rupees 1,690) being a portion of the large estimate of Rupees 40,400 for draining the whole of the Agram Barracks, sanctioned in G. O., No. 311, of 10th February, requires no further orders to be passed on it.

2. Funds cannot be provided in the current year, and the work must therefore stand over till 1875-76; in the Budget for which year will be made an entry of a sum adequate to carry out the sections more immediately required; of which the District Engineer will send the Chief Engineer a memorandum.

The drains here estimated for, are portions of the general scheme for draining the Agraham Barracks portions only, in connection with the Bath rooms now under going alterations, and which are really necessary for the carrying away of the water from these Bath rooms.

No provision was made for these drains in the estimate for alterations to Bath rooms.
