Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 11th February 1874.

No. 165. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 14th January 1874, No. 20 :—
From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 12th January 1874, No. 22.

I HAVE the honour to inform you that, during the time the Camp of Exercise is being held near Bangalore, it has been arranged to run special passenger trains at intervals during the day between Bangalore, the camp, and Cadgoody, for the convenience of visitors to the camp.

2. Six copies of the time and fare table were forwarded to your office on the 7th instant, and I beg to express my regret that this letter, the object of which is to solicit the sanction of Government thereto, was not addressed to you earlier.

3. I shall be much obliged if you will now inform me whether the arrangements are approved, and if you will at the same time give authority for us to alter the times of running the special trains to and from Bangalore to such times as experience may prove to be more convenient to the public than those shown in the time-table.

SUBMITTED for the approval of Government.

2. In anticipation of such approval the proposed arrangements have been authorized.
