Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 11th February 1874.

No. 174. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. GODDARD, R.E., District Engineer, Presidency, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Fort St. George, 26th December 1873, No. 4,565:—

UPON the occasion of a joint inspection of Public Works Stores and Workshops on the 9th December 1873, by the Officiating Controller of Public Works Accounts and myself, it occurred to him that it is desirable to require the Store-keeper and his Deputy to lodge security; and to employ a pensioner of good character to search the employes of the department when leaving the premises at the close of the day's work.

2. The General Superintendent and myself both concurred in the views of the Controller of Public Works Accounts.

3. The Store-keeper is in charge of stores to the value of the sum of Rupees 5,78,000. His salary is Rupees 200, and that of his Deputy 70; and I have now the honour to recommend that the Store-keeper be required to lodge a security of Rupees 1,000, and the Deputy Store-keeper Rupees 300, in cash or promissory notes.

4. I have the honour to propose that a pensioner of good character on a salary of per mensem Rupees 10 be entertained as gate-keeper and searcher, his salary being debited to the Workshop.

No. 175. ORDER THEREON, 11th February 1874, No. 324.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 10.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor in Council concurs in the propriety of requiring the deposit of security by the Store-keeper and Deputy Store-keeper of the Public Works Stores; but considers that the present incumbents of the appointments should not be required to pay more than Rupees 500 and 200 respectively. On vacancies occurring the full amount of security should be exacted from their successors.

2. The entertainment of a Gate-keeper on a salary of Rupees 10 per mensem to be charged to the Workshops is approved.
