Rupees 2,500 for providing racks in the

Ordnance Gun Powder Magazine in the Fort at Bangalore, I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government the urgent necessity there is for the early provision of the racks in question.

2. Even when completed with racks the magazine referred to will not be adequate to contain a sufficient proportion of the large quantity of ammunition and powder now required to be kept at Bangalore, and without the racks it is quite impossible to carry out, at that station, the strict orders issued as to the method of storing powder and ammunition in magazines, or to find place for even the reduced quantity of reserves, which at present can alone be stored there by reason of the want of magazine accommodation.
