Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 9th March 1874.

No. 206. Read the following letter from R. E. NORFOR, Esq., District Engineer, South Arcot, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Camp at Gowrapett, 26th January 1874, No. 208 :—

With reference to G. O., No. 1,801, of 9th June, and paragraph 2 of G. O., No. 2,707, of 24th August 1868, I have the honour to state that I have ascertained from the Superintendent of the Cuddalore District Jail that no sub-soil drainage is necessary, and it is observed from the records in this office that his predecessors were also of the same opinion.

2. The improvements sanctioned to the jail in the Government Order above quoted have all been completed with the exception of the block of solitary cells. The basement of this work, as also its superstructure up to 4 feet on three sides and 6 on the other, was completed at a cost of Rupees 234, and then stopped under the restrictive orders of 1869. The sanctioned estimate for improvements to the jail provides Rupees 810 for this building, and all that is now required for completing it is Rupees 576, that is the balance of the said Rupees 810. I request that the Government will be pleased to grant this sum of Rupees 576 to enable me to complete the solitary cells in this year.

3. The Inspector-General has stated that he will make departmental arrangements for provision for ordinary female patients, and for the reception of women suffering from contagious diseases.

No. 207. ORDER THEREON, 9th March 1874, No. 623.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 21.

THE sub-soil drains alluded to in previous correspondence were evidently misnamed so, and may be dispensed with.

2. The District Engineer of South Arcot will report without delay the nature and amount of outlay on each item of the estimate of Rupees 17,295, sanctioned in G. O., No. 2,707, of 24th August 1868, accounting for all excesses over 5 per cent. in the usual course. It would seem as if some of the work ordered to be done had never been carried out.
