Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
18th November 1874.

No. 299. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 29th October 1874, No. 660:—

In continuation of the letters noted in the margin, I have the honor to report, for the information of Government, that the temporary bridges at Vaniembady and Mailputty have been efficiently restored, and that, with the exception of the night mail train, the ordinary passenger train service between Madras and Jollarpett has been re-established. For some time there will be a certain unavoidable delay at the break near the Goriattum Station, where passengers will, of course, be required to change carriages.

2. Upon the North-West Line the ordinary passenger train service has been re-established between Madras and Rajempett, with the exception of the night mail train.

3. I learn from the Agent that telegraphic communication between Madras and Cuddapah has been restored; and that the inward overland mails of the 2nd instant may be expected in Madras to-morrow night, along with the Chief and Deputy Chief Engineers, who, as explained in paragraph 4 of letter, No. 655, were detained on the west bank of the Paupugnee river.

4. It is understood that the regular train service between Bellary, Ghooty, and Raichore has been maintained without interruption.
