Office Memorandum from Colonel H. K. BURNE, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, dated 27th October 1874, No. 1,323.

Accommodation and Quarters.

WITH reference to the communication* from the Public Works Department No. 1,403 M—W, "Military Works," dated the 15th August 1874, inquiring whether accommodation for School Masters and School Mistresses should be provided in detached bungalows, or in block buildings, the undersigned is directed to forward a copy of a letter† from the Quarter Master General, and to state that the Military Department concurs in the opinion of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

* 2 Plans returned herewith.

† No. 5,283, dated the 14th October 1874.

From Lieut.-Colonel F. ROBERTS, Officiating Quarter Master General, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, dated 14th October 1874, No. 5,283.

Buildings, Quarters.

IN returning, as requested, the enclosures of Military Department endorsement No. 1,384, "Accommodation and Quarters," dated 26th August 1874, I am directed to state that, in the opinion of the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, it is very desirable, on grounds of discipline, etc., that quarters for School Masters and School Mistresses should be detached, and not under the same roof, as many of both ranks sent out from England are unmarried.

2. It is understood that in the United Kingdom the School Masters' and Mistresses' quarters are commonly attached to their respective School buildings, which are widely apart.

3. This arrangement would, in His Excellency's opinion, be the best plan, but in India the necessity for a separate building for the Infant School has not been recognized, although the married quarters are usually far distant from the centre of the barracks, where the Adult Schools are generally located.
