No. 481. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 12th March 1875, No. 151:— *

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Government, that the salaries of certain officers of the South Indian Railway, which have been sanctioned in pounds sterling, are still being paid in India in rupees, converted at 1s. 10d. the rupee.

2. Under Clause 2 of the Contract, printed with the Act for the amalgamation of the Great Southern of India and Carnatic Railway Companies, which came into operation on the 1st July 1874, the rate of exchange was fixed at 1s. 11d. per rupee, and it will be observed from the enclosed letter* from the Agent of the South Indian Railway that the officers with whom special arrangements had been entered into for the payment of their salaries at the rate of 1s. 10d. per rupee are being paid at that rate, and it is presumed that this must continue till the expiration of their present covenants.

3. A list is forwarded giving the names of the officers with whom agreements for the payment of salary was entered into. With some arrangements were made at the rate of 1s. 10d. per rupee, with others at 2s. per rupee, and a few have the amount of salary expressed in Indian currency.

4. I request the sanction of Government to the disbursement of a rupee for every 1s. 10d. of the portion drawn in this country of the salaries of the Company's servants exhibited in the 3rd column of the list. I also beg that the Home Government may be addressed in order that the Board of Directors of the South Indian Railway Company may be asked to continue as they have done of late to make all future agreements with their servants for payment of salary in rupee currency.

From W. S. BETTS, Esq., Agent of the South Indian Railway, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Negapatam, 25th February 1875, No. 420.

THE Government Examiner of Railway Accounts spoke to me on the subject alluded to in your letter, No. 88, of the 8th instant, and I told him that only those officers with whom special agreements had been entered into for the payment of their salaries at the rate of 1s. 10d. per rupee were paid at that rate.

2. You will see from the attached list of covenants that some of the agreements entered into are at the rate of 1s. 10d. per rupee, some at 2s. per rupee, and some have the amount of salary expressed in Indian currency.

3. The several rates of pay drawn have, prior to the commencement of each half-year, received the sanction of Government.

ORDER THEREON, 19th April 1875, No. 1,094.

RAILWAY, No. 59.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor in Council observes that the rate of 1s. 11d. is fixed by a provision of the contract as that which is to be adopted in settling accounts between the Secretary of State and the Railway Companies. That provision cannot affect agreements as to salaries between the Companies and their servants.

2. The question of making all future contracts with Railway servants in rupee currency will be referred to the Board of Directors by the Agent of the Company.
