ORDER THEREON, 20th April 1875, No. 1,114.

RAILWAY, No. 66.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor in Council observes that all the accidents to cattle during the quarter ending 31st March on the Madras Railway occurred on forty miles of the line within the limits of the Malabar District, and seem to justify the complaint* made by the Magistrate of the District, which has been communicated for report in separate Proceedings, as to the inefficiency of the fences on that portion of the South-West Line.
