No. 619. Read the following despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India:—

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
16th September 1873.

Geographical,
No. 3.

My Lord,—I have received Your Excellency's Despatch, dated July 11th (No. 19), 1873, forwarding a list of the surveys, triangles, and memoirs in the collection at Madras, which is to be supplemented hereafter by a further list.

2. The cost of making copies, so as to complete the set at this office, would be too great, but the list contains information, with regard to the existence of maps and memoirs at Madras, which will often be useful hereafter. I have to request that the duplicates enumerated in the accompanying list may be transmitted to the Geographical Department of this office, and also that copies may be made and forwarded to me of the memoir of the Province of Dindigul (K. 84) together with a copy of the manuscript map covering the same ground.

I have, &c.,
