Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 4th June 1875.

No. 103. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 25th May 1875, No. 294 :—

From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 22nd May 1875, No. 533.

WITH reference to your letter, No. 576, dated the 21st instant, I have the honor to report, for the information of Government, that, upon the recommendation of Surgeon-Major Cockerill, and under Clause 4 of the Regulations for Furlough, Sick leave, and Privilege leave, I have granted Mr. T. H. Going, this Company's Deputy Chief Engineer, seven months' sick leave to enable him to proceed to England.

2. Mr. Going left Madras on the 8th instant by the P. and O. Company's Steamer Khedive, a passage to Southampton having been provided for him at the expense of the Company.

3. In reply to the 3rd paragraph of your letter, I have the honor to state that, as provided for in the Regulations, leave is only granted to officers in the service of the Madras Railway Company with the approval of the Agent and Manager, and care is taken to ascertain in each case that the leave applied for is admissible under the Rules.

4. I beg to express my regret that, owing to an oversight, the grant of sick leave to Mr. Going was not reported to you in due course.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.

2. Mr. H. R. P. Carter, who has been acting as Deputy Chief Engineer during Mr. Anderson's absence on duty to England, will continue to officiate in that appointment.
