My dear Mr. Ellis

As Mr. Hamilton will

like to go to Mathias,

to be acquainted with

Mr. Thompson. I have no objection to his

going away, beyond the standing objection that the Commandant always has to his young officer leaving the Tappan,

based on the fact that they shall do a year's duty
under the gun in the city of Hamilton. For the first time in his
day. As the time and for him is in your department.

Yours sincerely
Hewitt & Co.
