No. 425-A. Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Public Department, dated 16th June 1875, No. 795.

Telegram from the Military Secretary to the Government of India, dated Simla, the 7th June 1875.

“Your message to Home of 28th May. Lieutenant Awdry cannot have ordinary furlough. May go on urgent private affairs under Clause eleven, Regulations of 1868, or on duty for time occupied in going and returning, and such limited period in England as Secretary of State may allow. Should be at once re-appointed to Public Works. Letter follows.”

COMMUNICATED to Lieutenant A. Awdry and to the Military and Public Works Departments.

No. 425-B. Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Public Department, dated 17th June 1875, No. 800.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, dated 7th June 1875, No. 148.

Your letter No. 659, dated 19th May 1875, regarding the grant of furlough to Lieutenant Awdry, Royal Engineers, to enable him to accompany Lady Hobart to England, having been transferred on 5th June by the Home Department for disposal in the Military Department, a telegram, copy of which accompanies, was despatched to-day, stating the terms on which Lieutenant Awdry can proceed to England. The furlough regulations do not allow the grant of ordinary furlough to an officer of Lieutenant Awdry's Indian service, and the Government of India, while most desirous of meeting Lady Hobart's wishes, are not competent to set these regulations on one side.

2. It is open to Lieutenant Awdry, however, to accept either of the two alternative modes of leaving India without forfeiting his position. As stated in the telegram he may either go for six months on urgent private affairs under Clause XI. of the Regulations of 1868, or he may be specially granted leave to proceed as “on duty” in attendance on Lady Hobart under the circumstances. The period of this leave will comprise the time occupied in going and returning, and such limited period of stay in England as the Secretary of State may be pleased to grant.

3. At present I am to observe that Lieutenant Awdry has no status in India, and it is necessary, therefore, that before quitting the country he should be re-appointed to the Public Works Department by the Government of Madras.

• COMMUNICATED to Lieutenant A. Awdry with reference to his letter, dated the 11th May 1875.
