From
The Officiating District Engineer
Vizagapatam

To
The Secretary to Government P.W.D.
Madras

Sir,
I have the honor to bring to notice that Mr Nordmann under the orders contained in the accompanying Telegram, officiated as District Engineer from 6th May to 9th June 1875, during my absence on privilege leave and that he has not yet been Gazetted as so officiating. I request therefore you will be so good as to cause the necessary entry in the Gazette to be made so that the Controller of P.W. Accounts may not raise any objection to pass Mr Nordmann's claim to the extra allowance of Rs. 75 per mensem which he is entitled to under the revised section 25 of the Acting allowance Code.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obt. servt
