

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 11th August 1875.

No. 194. Read the following letter from JAMES MAY, Esq., Superintendent, of Madras Harbour Works, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. MULLINS, R.E., Officiating Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 3rd August 1875, No. 6 :—

I HAVE the honor to report that a commencement was made with the works proper of the harbour this evening, by the depositing of 160 tons of rubble stone (laterite) in the surf bank, or shore end, of the north pier at Royapooram. The stone was quarried on the moor near the village of Ambatoor, about 10 miles by railway from Madras, and sent down in twenty wagons belonging to the Railway Company, who delivered it to us at Royapooram Terminus.

2. The progress will be slow at first, increasing gradually as the work is opened up.

No. 195. ORDER THEREON, 11th August 1875, No. 2,320.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 13.

THE Honorable the Governor in Council has learnt with satisfaction that the construction of the Madras Harbour was commenced on the 3rd instant at the north pier.
