Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 13th September 1875.

No. 264. Read the following letter from R. G. MACDONALD, Esq., Examiner of Railway and Irrigation Accounts, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. MULLINS, R.E., Chief Engineer for Irrigation, dated Madras, 2nd September 1875, No. 823 :—

I HAVE the honor to inform you that C. Munnajee Row was prevented, owing to some quarantine arrangements of the civil authorities, from being able to rejoin his appointment at Kurnool within the period of the leave for six weeks granted by you as per Notification in the Gazette of 20th July 1875. He was due at Kurnool on the morning of the 21st August and he resumed his duties upon the 23rd idem.

2. C. Munnajee Row was at Ghooty in sufficient time, and he used every endeavour, at much inconvenience to himself and his family, to reach Kurnool in time; but it appears the civil authorities had instructed the police to stop all travellers from Ghooty, and Munnajee Row was allowed to go forward only after special permission had been obtained, and after he had been detained for a time in quarantine at Peipully.

3. I trust under these circumstances that you will grant him two days' more privilege leave, so that he may not suffer any loss of pay.

No. 265. ORDER THEREON, 13th September 1875, No. 2,616.

IRRIGATION, No. 25.
Establishment.

UNDER the circumstances reported Munnajee Row will be considered as on duty from the 21st August, the date on which his privilege leave expired.
